Zakat

Allah has obligated them to pay charity from their wealth (i.e. Zakat), to be taken from the rich among them and then distributed to their poor PROPHET (SAW)

Zakat is the third of the five basic pillars of Islam, Zakat is primarily an act of worship. The Arabic word 'Zakah' literally means purification, growth, blessing and appreciation.

Your Zakat donations support 37% of our projects with the rest coming from your Sadaqah and Lillah. Your generosity has meant that the work we have undertaken has surpassed all expectations. Please continue to join hands and give your exceptional support so that This Ramadan The Spirit for Change Shines Brighter Than Ever for the most vulnerable.

ZAKAT IS A COMPULSORY religious duty conferred by Allah (swt) upon all adult Muslims whose wealth exceeds the prescribed limit to look after their less fortunate brothers and sisters.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE TRUST US WITH THEIR ZAKAT and we take that very seriously and do our best to ensure the right beneficiaries receive it in many of our life-changing projects. As such, we hope that you will consider us when giving your Zakat.

Many don't have food to break their fast

Ehsaas has Iftar feeding stations and teams delivering Iftar meals throughout Pakistan and, is aiming to feed as many people as possible with your help. Please donate as much as you can.

Ali's Story

JAMALIYA VILLAGE, JACOBABAD, SINDH, PAKISTAN

Ali Bux Hazaro is a farmer and many times at the end of a day's work, he would open his fast with just water! You provide people like Ali with Iftar Meals every year.

"So many times I have opened fast with just water – having good food at the end of a day's fasting was amazing! I pray for the people that fed me, may they have even more to help even more people".

Food Kitchen

Ehsaas has also established a Food Kitchen (Dastarkhuwan) for the poor and those on low incomes and serves a nutritional and dignified meal for over 1,000 people a month – with this number increasing during Ramadan and Qurbani time.

Aqeeqah

The 'Aqeeqah' is a means of expressing gratitude to Allah (swt).

The birth of a child is a cause for great celebration.

In Islam, certain etiquettes and rituals from the authentic traditions of the Prophet (saw) are recommended as a family welcomes a newborn child into the world including giving an 'Aqeeqah' - it involves slaughtering a goat or sheep (two for a boy and one for a girl) and sharing its meat with friends and family on the occasion of welcoming a newborn child.

eidi FOR KIDS

Our 'Eidi for Kids' project makes Eid Special for as many children as possible.

We hand out new clothes and other gifts to kids before Eid day so they can celebrate in style.

During Eid-ul-Fitr & Eid-ul-Adha we distribute to children in four orphanages: Mawaa Homes, Seerat Ul Jannah, Anjuman Hayat Ul Islam and Iqra Sweet Homes and, at Ehsaas Eid Gift Camp on Tariq Road Karachi.

Anwar's Story

CHIRAGH BELA, KABIR WALA, PUNJAB, PAKISTAN

Anwar Mai is a widow and has 4 teenage children. Her health is poor, but she still works as a maid on low wages to provide for her family. With no source of water at home, she had to ask neighbours.

"This hand pump will make a huge difference to our lives with better health and more time for me to earn a better wage. May Allah bless the donors for their kindness".

Reap the rewards of an eternal act

What better time than Ramadan to help build a Masjid to provide a place for prayer and other community services.

It is also a hub for education and moral and spiritual development. By building a Masjid you will not only earn the reward of providing a community with a house of Allah, but your Sadaqah Jariya can continue giving benefit for generations to come.

Hafeez's Story

SHIKARPUR DISTRICT, SINDH, PAKISTAN

Hafeez Lakhoo's village had no Masjid. Your donations provided the village with a place for prayer and a vital hub for education, moral and spiritual development and other community services.

"We had no Masjid nearby and the adults and children had to walk a few miles to attend prayers and Quran classes. This will really help us all and give 'Jannah' to the donors, Ameen".

There is no right for the son of Adam other than these things: a house in which he lives, a garment to cover his nakedness, a piece of bread, and water.

PROPHET (SAW)

Your generous donations have allowed Ehsaas to open its 'village' for the needy and those affected by floods.

Providing homes for over 700 people in Kotri, Jamshoro, Sindh. The Village has 100 Houses, a central Water Well (with piped water to the houses), a Masjid and Shops. Homes were handed over to new residents in October 2025.

We aim to build more villages like this and need your continued support to make this possible.

Mubram's Story

KOTRI, JAMSHORO, SINDH, PAKISTAN

Muhram Khoso and his family lost everything in the floods. Since then, they were living in terrible conditions. They received a home in the Ehsaas Model Village, built by our generous donors.

"When we lost everything we never imagined we would have a brand-new home. We have no words of gratitude to the donors. We pray that they are always blessed, healthy and wealthy".

Build a House

We now aim to build an additional 100 houses for the needy and those affected by the floods in different parts of Pakistan. Help build a better future for families living in squalid conditions.

We have already started building new homes for people like Farhat Mai, a widow with young children in Village Peer Kamaya More, District Jhang.

Farhat said:

"Our new home will protect my children and myself from harsh weather, and we are very thankful to the donors and those who facilitated its construction".

Help us build a better future for families in need.
